Education

We are actively introducing a curriculum for the twenty first century into our three elementary and schools and one junior high school. We are raising youth through international exchanges, educating the people who will carry the town into the future, and expanding educational and recreational facilities to enhance people's experiences. From small children to senior citizens, everyone spends their whole life learning.

The sincere look in the children's eyes, their smiles as they play on the playground, and internationally-minded English education. We practice a curriculum which values the children's individuality and broadens each one's potential in a friendly atmosphere.
